Citizens' Association Wins Long Fight to Get District Water

After nearly a twelve-year fight for an edequate water supply through the extension of the District water mains, the East Washington Heights Citizens' Association has cause for rejoicing in the announcement at last night's meeting that work has been started on the erection of a pumping station in Anacostia.

Plans for the extension of the water

Plans for the extension of the water mains, as far as is known now, were outlined by Secretary David C. Fountain. They will be installed in Eighteenth street to Good Hope road, run cast on that thoroughfare, and will be carried as far as the Stanton School, in Good Hope, at least.

In order to impress upon the Commissioners the necessity for a further extension of the water pipes, a resolution was passed upon the motion of the Rev. James W. Many, calling upon the District authorities named to have the pipes laid in Bowen road from Good Hope as far north as the Suitland road. Determination was reached to try, and have the lights restored to the roads from which they were removed some time ago by order of the Commissioners. The need for these lights along the Walker road especially was emphasized by several members, who described a lot of automobile traffic along that highway at night as making the highway dangerous for pedestrians in its narrow and dark condition. A report to this effect will go to the Commissioners.

Citizens Opposing Building of Garbage Plant at Occoquan

Resolutions opposing the building of a municipal garbage plant at Occoquan, Va., and asking that the commission Va., and asking that the commission obtain permission from Congress to Investigate the most modern methods of disposing of refuse, were passed at a meeting of the Northeast Washington Citizens' Association last night, in the Northeast Temple. The resolution was presented by James M. Wood, chairman of the committee on sanitation.

Another resolution, which was passed, and which aroused much interest at the meeting was a petition that will be forwarded to the Commissioners of the District, asking to amend the traffic regulations so as to make it a criminal offense, punishable with a heavy penalty, for the failure of the operator of any motor-propelled vehicle to stop his car and disclose his identity when a pedestrian is struck.

Thomas E. Will, secretary of the Suffrage League of the District, introduced a resolution that the association should go on record as being in favor of the fisht to vote in the District.

Another resolution enacted and which will be presented to the commission is a petition asking for the enacting of some law to prevent wandering bands of gypsies and other such marauding bands from entering the District.

In declining a fourth term as president of the association Mr. Parris declared that the Georgetown Association, through its conservative common sense action, had won the confidence and approval of the Commissioners and Congress alike and that its wishes had been largely respected, and, therefore, its work fruitful of result. Mr. Parris described the present approaches to Georgetown as mortifying, and bespoke the efforts of the Association to correct them.

the efforts of the Association to correct them.

Frank P. Leetch, in a brief speech of acceptance of his new office, outlined a campaign of action for the ensuing year to bring the full measure of benefits to Georgetown. He said that he proposed to follow the policy that had won the association a place above all others in the eateem of the two governing bodies of the District.

The election of officers was held at the monthly meeting in Potomac Savings Bank hall last night.
